

STARK &...

Reinforcing Stark's reputation for design innovation, May marks the introduction of the Turkish Oriental Collection, a stunning addition to the Stark portfolio blending the most beautiful semi-antique rugs into modern settings...

This elegant New Oriental Tibetan rug formed a breathtaking flooring feature for the Tatler restaurant at London Design Week 2009. Made to order, this magnificent wool and silk rug is finished with a deep border to highlight the beautiful classic pattern.

We have a wide selection of rugs available for viewing today in our London showroom at Chelsea Harbour Design Centre. Delivery can also be arranged to a London address within 48 hours notice. Our rugs can be reproduced in any size, colour and wool or silk combination.

Stark New

Bringing new life to an ancient craft, Stark is delighted to introduce its dazzling new range of Oriental Turkish Patchwork rugs. Taking a modern interpretation on the art of creating a quilt-like result from salvaged semi-antique rugs, the 'Stark difference' means that, unlike traditional patchwork rugs where many colours are used together, each rug in the Stark collection follows a distinctive single colour theme.

One or more rugs can be sewn together for close-covered use or cut down to form runners for both stairs and corridors. To view the rugs and see our full range of new designs for April, please click here.

Stark Talk

1950's style and glamour comes to the Stark showcase next to the café on the ground floor of the Chelsea Harbour Design Centre. Combining simple floral patterns with striking geometrics in an attractive arrangement of truffle, greys and charcoal, these luxurious wool carpets are showcased to their best in an elegant curved and silhouetted effect. Pictured left to right are Aspasia stria, Topper and Filigree cut pile, with Brissac and Garden Damask on the wall.
