

This month it's all about colour as we look forward to the end of September, and the annual Focus exhibition at Chelsea Harbour. Running this year from Sunday 26th to Wednesday 29th we'll be featuring all our latest products & ranges, and we'd love you to join us for coffee or fruit cocktails in our 3rd floor showroom in The South Dome anytime during the event. We'll also have copies of our latest hardback 'Darius at Stark' to give away featuring over 200 colour images of antique rugs...

Stark & New

These vibrant and striking Goralnick hand knotted wool and silk designs can be custom made to any shape and size to create a spectacular fusion of shape and colour.

Stark & Style

This sumptuous feature rug was custom produced by our Chelsea team for top London restaurant Sketch and then made on a jacquard loom to achieve the perfect effect. It's just one of many such commissions that we've produced for settings as diverse as boutique hotels, yachts and aircraft, and of course the most elegant private homes. The Darius at Stark book features over 200 rug designs with a synopsis of historical significance of the design and construction method.

As part of a new personal shopping service we are able to source any style of antique rug at any size to suit your scheme. We hold a vast inventory of antique rugs in the States. We also have our own workshop to couture rugs as required.

Stark & Stunning

A chic new range from the Diamond Barrata Collection comprises 6 designs in stunning white and blue colourways, all 100% wool machine made woven Wilton carpet. Click here to see our new designs.
